

Homeland Day in Brussel ‘Sudan after the blockade’

The Sudanese community in Belgium, in cooperation with the communities and civil society organizations of the European Union, is working to lift the US embargo on Sudan.

The day includes views and proposals on lifting the US embargo on Sudan in terms of economic process and development. Future strategy after lifting the US embargo on Sudan.

 Dr. Babeker Ismail

from London on the use of Sudanese experts in Europe in the transfer of experiences to the homeland

 Dr. Mohamed Mekki

from Germany on the lifting of the siege in the development of industry in Sudan

Mr. Abdel Rahim Mohamed Abdel Rahim

on the Sudanese-European relations after the lifting of the siege

 Dr. Mohamed Kabbar

on the economic impact on Sudan after lifting the siege

 Mohamed Mustafa

after the siege on the Sudanese people

There will be opportunities for interventions for the audience

The program

The program will end with national Sudanese Song Festival with the artist Hind El-Tahir

Saturday (21 October) in Brussels from 5 pm

Ninoofsesteenweg 82

1080 Sint-Jans-Molenbeek

FZOVVL

Sudanese community in Belgium and the contributions of the communities, organizations and individuals in the countries of the European Union